

CRAFTERS ARE NEEDED

We are always in need of diverse backgrounds involved with the operations of the Museum, especially in the areas of crafting. Do you knit, paint, sketch, stitch or design your own crafts? Are you willing to share your beautifully designed works? Just a friendly reminder that we welcome, accept and appreciate the donation of handcrafted items to sell in our craft shop. Anyone interested in donating craft items may contact the Museum to arrange to drop off items.

ORGANIZATIONAL VISION

The aim of the Fultz Corner Restoration Society is to continue to draw volunteers and visitors who are interested in continuing to educate and be educated in matters pertaining to the founding, settlement and development of the Sackville, Beaver Bank/Kinsac and Lucasville areas from the time of earliest settlement to the present.

In addition, the Society maintains the buildings and grounds as a community museum, and to collect, study and preserve those objects and artifacts that best illustrate the founding, settlement and development of the greater Sackville area.

ABOUT FULTZ HOUSE MUSEUM

The Fultz House Museum is home to many artifacts and photos that depict community life in Sackville, Lucasville, Beaver Bank/Kinsac and surrounding area from the 1860's to more contemporary times.

Sackville's unique Museum is located at the corner of two historically significant great roads of Nova Scotia - the Cobequid and Old Sackville.

On site are the Fultz House, the Grace Cooperage c. 1900, and a replica 1800's blacksmith shop all surrounded by spacious lawns and gardens.

A general store houses the Museum's gift shop where many interesting crafts can be found for purchase.

FULTZ HOUSE MUSEUM

A VOLUNTEER DESTINATION

COME EXPLORE THE MANY VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES
TO BE FOUND AT THE
FULTZ HOUSE MUSEUM!

Dear Volunteer,

On behalf of the Fultz Corner Restoration Society, I would like to take a moment and share some information with you regarding our organization's objectives and guidelines.

We are an organization devoted to telling Sackville's story. We provide the community with a place to come and learn, to literally take footsteps into our past and learn about the community's infancy and its evolving life. As well, we profile its interesting citizens who helped grow and advance the social fabric, economic vibrancy and cultural richness that has led to the Sackville we know today.

Once you take the next few minutes and read the information provided in this leaflet, I think you will agree that the Fultz House Museum is a great place to get involved with, whether that is on a weekly, bi-weekly or monthly basis.

Remember, that we value, recognize and appreciate the range of skills and abilities of prospective volunteers. Volunteer opportunities are available in a number of areas within the Museum, including the following: collections, preservation and restoration care, property work, and aiding with special events. New volunteers are part of the lifeblood of our organization.

At the Museum we are all part of a team. Know that you will be surrounded by a professional group of volunteers dedicated to coming together to maintain and build on a track record of success in providing our community with an authentic, historical experience.

Sincerely,

Elmer W. Grove

President, Fultz Corner Restoration Society

MISSION STATEMENT

The purpose of the Fultz Corner Restoration Society is to provide public access to the Fultz House Museum, outbuildings and surrounding grounds, while providing an ongoing educational experience through the use of artifacts, photographs and written interpretive information of interest to the Society, while preserving all of the above items for the future use of the communities of Sackville, Lucasville, Beaver Bank/Kinsac and the surrounding area, as well as its visitors.

OBJECTIVES

The objectives of the FCRS and Fultz House Museum include:

1. The collection and preservation of artifacts, photographs and records of historical significance relative to the cultural, economic, political and social development of the Sackville, Beaver Bank/Kinsac and Lucasville areas.
2. Educating the public on the history of the Sackville, Beaver Bank/Kinsac and Lucasville areas by providing interaction between the Museum and the community and schools through exhibits, tours, programs, teas and special events.
3. Maintaining a pleasing aesthetic environment evoking the history of Sackville and surrounding communities through the various buildings and gardens on the property.
4. Since the museum services a large community then the focus of the museum should not be limited to only one facet of its history.
5. Adhering to the guidelines of the Collections Policy by the periodical review of artifacts.
6. Separate committees will be organized, as required, to further various aspects of the operation of the Fultz House Museum and to utilize the expertise of its members and volunteers.
7. The remaining natural woodlands on the property shall be maintained and preserved as a site for the study and appreciation of examples of the natural history of the area, and that this site be made accessible through paths and the appropriate signage.